An Act for reorganizing the militia. It is hereby enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Vermont: SEC. 1. Each and every able-bodied male citizen of this state. between the ages of eighteen and forty-five years, except as hereinafter provided, shall be liable to perform military duty and shall be enrolled in the militia of this state. It shall be the duty of the listers or assessors of each town and city within this state, to make such enrollment at such time and times, and in such manner, and in accordance with such rules and regulations as the commander-in-chief may prescribe. And if such listers or assessors shall neglect or refuse to perform the duties required of them by this section, the commander-in-chief shall forthwith cause the same to be performed by such person as he shall appoint, at the expense of said town or city; and such listers or assessors, for such refusal or neglect, shall forfeit and pay the sum of one hundred dollars, to be recovered by action of debt in the name of the Adjutant and Inspector General, which action it is made his duty to institute.

SEC. 2. The Vice President of the United States, the members of both Houses of Congress, all postmasters, all sworn mail carriers actually engaged in the conveyance of the United States mail, all telegraph operators while actually engaged as such, all engineers of locomotives on railroads while actually engaged as such, all engineers and pilots of steamboats while actually engaged as such, which carry the United States mail, and all persons exempt from military duty by the laws of the United States on account of service, shall be exempt from the performance of military

Sec. 3. All tavern keepers, keepers of boarding houses, persons having boarders in their families, and any master or mistress of any dwelling house, shall, upon the application of any person authorized to make such enrollment give information of the names of all persons residing or lodging in such house liable to be enrolled, as the person making such enrollment may demand; and if any person, of whom information is so required. shall refuse to give such information as he may possess. or shall knowingly give false information, he shall forfeit the sum of ten dollars for each item of information so withheld or falsely stated: and every person who shall refuse to give for the rendering of a true and correct therefor as aforesaid, to the commanding his own name and proper information when applied to by any person authorized to make such enrollment, or shall give a false name or information, shall forfeit a like sum; such penalties to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction, by suit in the name of the town in which the penalty was incurred, for the benefit of such town; and it shall be the duty of the person making such enrollment to institute suits against all persons who may incur any penalty under this section. SEC. 4. taken as usual at highest Market Prices, Barton, Nov. 18, 1872.

For Sale.

Owing to ill-health, the subscriber will sell—or ex-change for a small place of from 4 to 20 acres—his farm in Brownington, containing 70 acres of nice land, in a good state of cultivation, that will summer and winter eight cows and a team. Comfortable buildings. There are some 50 Bryant apple trees on the place, just commencing to bear; also plums, currants and goose-berries. Timber and wood enough for the use of the farm. For particulars inquire of J. H. Evans, or the subscriber on the place. Any letters of inquiry prompt-ly answered.
